Dale Brotton needs the $10.00 participant fee for the Riverfest parade now if you are going to participate! The parade is on 5/7 at 5:00. If you are participating please remember to get your insurance to put the Riverfest Festival on your policy as a rider.

New Business

Deb Rinehart from Newton has asked if we could participate in the special ed class prom this year. Around 15 cars are needed. We would pick up the kids at 7:30 from the country club and take them to the school. There will be a bus for the spouses to meet up with their driver after the drop off of prom participants. Thus far we have about 9 volunteers.

Kevin Mansfield has everything settled with the hotel. Get with Kevin if you need to be put on the waiting list for a room.

Mike McKee says he will take donations throughout the year for the banquet door prizes. Watch for little things at the different car shows! He also mentioned that KC has a car show every Friday night at 90th & Medcap (I hope I got that one right!)

Drive and Eat

Dave & Leslie Snodgrass are hosting the drive & eat on Saturday, April 10th. We will meet at the old Builders Square parking lot on Kellogg & Webb at 8:00 am. Due to Dave not liking secrets he disclosed the whereabouts of the drive & eat while avoiding sinister glares from his lovely wife Leslie who pronounced "so much for keeping it secret?" We always did like going to Burns Dave - thanks!!

Swap & Shop

Randy King still has his corvette for sale; $18,000.

Randy's friend is selling his yellow Z06; 6300 miles for $50,000

50/50 Pot & the Door Prize were won by Jim & Nancy Reeves. 50/50 was $16.50.

The next meeting will be Wednesday, May 5th at 6:45.

The motion to adjourn was made and seconded. The meeting was adjourned.

Respectfully submitted,
Chris Rans,
Secretary

Old Business

Kent did not have anymore information at this time in regards to the club flag/flagpole pricing. He suggested maybe having someone else look further as he has been too busy. Barb Brotton mentioned she might pursue it a little more. Kent mentioned that poles were available through Target and WalMart - something to look into.

Dave Snodgrass said that Jimmy's Diner was set up and handed out some maps of the parking lot and spaces to be designated.

Riverfest parade has 12 paid participants .

Monte talked to Steph regarding the Black Top Nationals and the autocross. We lost the first parking lot designated and they are suggesting the NE corner lot at Lawrence Dumont Stadium but Monte asked if there was a chance to also get the church parking lot that butts up to that lot - it is in much better condition. At the first request for the church lot they said no but Steph is asking a councilman to go and talk with them.
