Message from the Prez . . .

Happy fall y'all! (I'm practicing my accent for Eureka Springs.) First of all thank you to Art and Darlene for the September Drive and Eat to Inman that was both delicious and educational. Another thank you to Randy and LIn Smith for making the Funkahana possible, along with Kevin and Kent (and crew) for setting up the course, and finally to Mike and Monte for cooking the burgers and hot dogs. Congratulations to Angie Criggler (first place), Glen Bailey (second place), and Rex Corbin (third place). Everyone had a good time, including those of us who are less gifted and talented on the course.

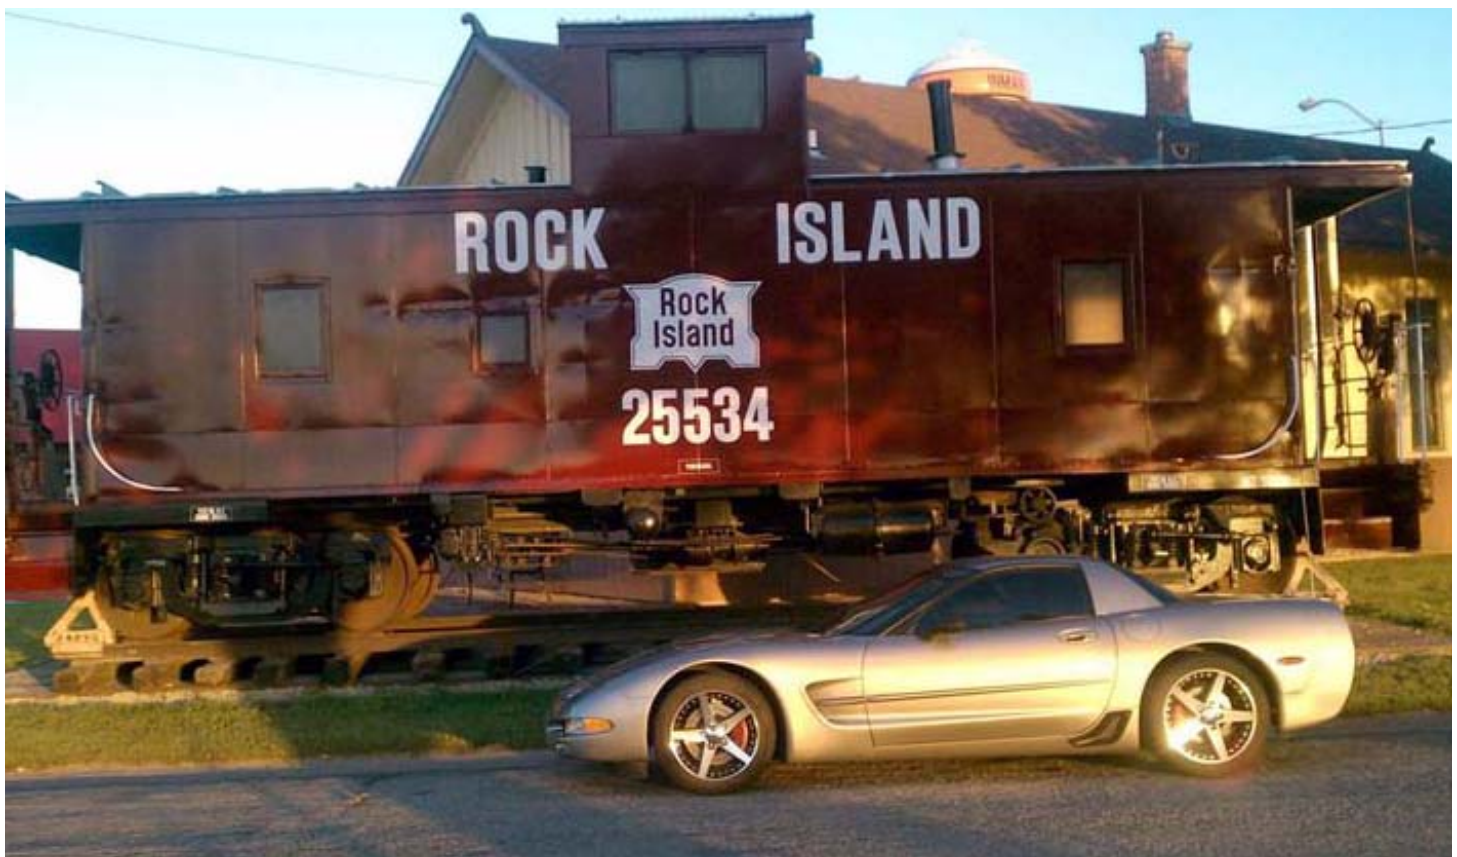

October is going to be a busy and event filled month. We can all share Eureka Springs stories at the meeting on October 6. We will have a drive and eat hosted by Gene Brown. Save the date because on October 23 you are all invited to my house for a Halloween Party preceded by a rally/scavenger hunt.

Costumes are optional but as I remember we had some very creative ones last year. The club will provide hot dogs, chilli, pop, tea, and coffee. You bring your favorite side dish. The party will be at 1242 Emerson in Wichita and we will get out more specifics closer to the party.

I also encourage any of you who are interested in e-board for 2012 to be sure and contact me ASAP.

See you all soon,
Dale

Old Business

Funkahana will be 9/12. Kent & Kevin will do the track; Monte will bring the grill and others will bring the food.

The Black Top Nationals was the main topic this evening. Rick Knuckles was present and discussed how the idea elevated from small conversations to bigger and more explosive ideas. The Ford president had taken a quick peek at the autocross and was excited. They figure about 100,000 people were around on Saturday during all events. FSN is to air some short shows of the Black Top Nationals starting on 9/5 at 11:00 (channel 34). Barrett Jackson and Ford are very excited which is an indication they will be back! Richard Ayres will talk internally about next year. There was a lot more in discussion but I have no time to give every detail. Sorry. Tentatively the dates are for the same weekend for 2011. There were 200 cars in Park City Friday night. Also, the Fallen Heroes Ride took place in Park City - over 100 motorcyclists carried flags and placed them at the VFW. 1 per minute with a total of 565 runs.

New Business

Brad, who works at Walgreens, has suggested a flu shot evening. He would come and do a clinic here at Don Hattan. Flu shots would cost $29.99; also available would be the pneumonia shot. A motion was made to try it and was seconded. The clinic will start around 6:00 pm on the night of the October meeting.

50/50 pot was won by Greg Esping with winnings of $18.00. Gary Henderson won the drawing.

Swap & Shop: Rick brought in Black Top Nationals T-shirts and a few hats.

Next drive and eat will be on Saturday, September 4th and leaving from the truck stop across from Don Hattan at 5:00 pm. - Buffet style - new destination - museum possible.

Meeting adjourned.

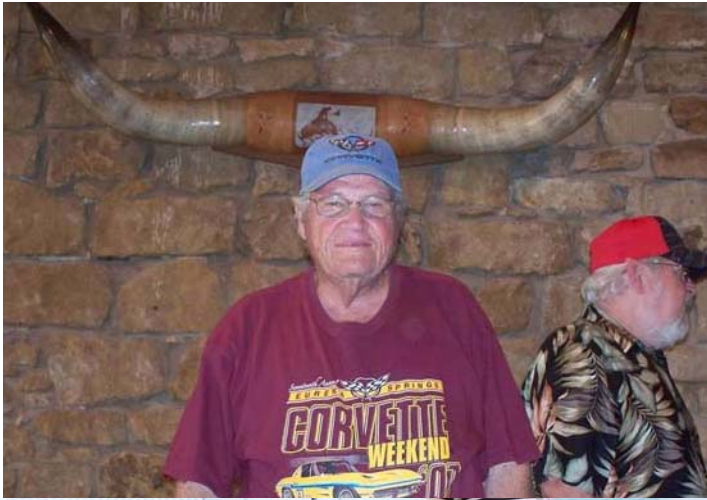

Respectfully submitted by,
Chris Rans,
Secretary.

Old Business

Too late to vote on making the Central Christian Church car show a club event.

Discussion was on the Eureka Springs departure times. Some will leave at 6:00 from 47th and Broadway in order to get down early for the autocross. Others will leave at 8:00 from the Lowes parking lot on East Kellogg and others may leave at 7:00 – 7:30 depending on how they feel.

New Business

Discussed having a rally for the Halloween Party in October. Kent & Louise were not quite sure if they would have enough time; will present to the general meeting.

New timing lights will probably be needed before the next Black Top Nationals. Quotes will have to be gotten and then brought in for discussion and vote.

2011 Funkahana we will need utensils and napkins.

Formed an election committee in order to get nominations for November elections.

Gene Brown has October's drive & eat- going to Durham – leaving truck stop at 6:30 on Friday night.

November drive & eat will be hosted by Chris & Monte at the bowling alley.
