Message from the Prez . . .

Thanks to Daryl and Cindy Burbach for another fine performance on the auction and all who made the evening such a fun and charitable Christmas party. As we have done in the past, the club gave the entire proceeds from the Christmas party gift exchange in the amount of $235.00 to the Lord's Diner.

Our annual Awards Banquet is January 18th at the Wichita Petroleum Club. Please be sure to fill out your registration form and include a check to be sent to the clubs P.O. Box or bring it with you to the January meeting. This year the cost will be $12.50 per person.

Pick up your registration form at the January meeting or use the one attached to this newsletter. All monies must be received before the banquet.

Happy New Year! I hope you and yours had a good holiday season, and are ready for another great year. The board is planning a full calendar of fun events for this year. I thank all of them for all their hard work for the club. I hope to see everyone at the next meeting January 2nd, at Davis Moore Chevrolet.

Save the Wave!!
Glen Bailey

Minutes from the December 5, 2012 ACCC Meeting

We had no guests but did have a new member, Jim Wilson with his black '94 coupe.

Minutes of the November meeting were approved with Travis Pearson and Gene Brown objecting, all in the spirit of Christmas. Travis is now in a bind with his election to the E-board. Can he object to the minutes on general principals without appearing vindictive toward a fellow E-board member?

Barry Hooper reported we have 83 members that renewed for 2013.

Art Warren reported $3,035.06 in checking and $11.00 in petty cash.

Mike McKee reported on participation points:

1. Kellers	860
2. Dykes	840
3. Brottons	685
4. Michaels	640
5. Baileys	590
6. McKee	480
7. Mehls	400
8. Burbachs	355

Bob Battaglear reported that the NCCC member packets should be received within the next couple of weeks.

Kent Michael showed club calendars for 2013 which can be purchased for $8. The throws have been ordered and are $37.00.

Old Business:

Renewals have been sent to NCCC.

Our tax exempt papers have been sent to the IRS with a fee of $400. We paid an accounting service $200 for their work.

Kent Michael is looking into the club using PayPal for renewal fees.

New Business:

The Awards banquet in January was briefly discussed.

Kerri Keller is putting together a Corvette Recipe Book. She is asking that you send your favorite recipe to her for inclusion. There will be a small charge for the book to just cover the expenses of printing.

Ron Boswell won the 50/50 pot of $11.00.

Doug and Mary Mehl won the door prize of Corvette golf balls.
