Message from the Prez . . .

Be sure to thank Mary Mehl for setting up the February Drive and Eat to the Mosley Street Melodrama. The ACCC group sat right up front, It was a riot. I told Cristy as we were walking into the theater that I wanted my back next to the low wall that way it would be less likely to be picked on by the cast of the show. So, Cristy sat on the aisle side of the table, and guess what? Cristy was selected for the dating game skit. Well she didn't win an Oscar for her performance, but she did come home with me. I think Valerie, Craig, Jay, Dale and Tim caught some action as well. If you missed it, maybe next year you could have your chance to be a rising star!

Dust off your bowling shoes and ball, we are going bowling March 14th in Newton. Read all about it in the newsletter. Also, circle this date (May 30th) on your calendar. Is anyone claustrophobic? How about a trip to Yoder for an early lunch, then a short trip to the Hutchinson salt mines. Details in next months newsletter.

I read in the Bowling Green Daily News, that the new 2015 Corvette Stingray ranked best American sports car by Consumer Reports, but we already knew that! As far as I'm concerned, it's been the #1 American sports car since it was conceived.

As always, if you have any ideas for club events or places to go, please share them with me or an E-Board member. Hopefully, the weather cooperates and all can come out to the next club monthly meeting at Davis-Moore Chevrolet Wednesday, March 4th.

Glen Bailey
ACCC President
