Message from the Prez . . .

The September Drive and Eat went to the town of Arlington. I wasn't able to attend, but I was told by several people that it was one of the best drive and eats. The drive was well attended, and we received a new membership at the event. Please thank Gene Brown for hosting.

If you are interested in serving on the ACCC executive board this coming year, please contact me before or at the October meeting. Your involvement could make the club even more successful, and help everyone have a great time through out the year. Voting will occur at the November meeting.

We are accepting $30 membership renewals. Please mail-in your renew as soon as possible, or bring your renewal form and payment to the next meeting. We prefer to have the renewals collected by the November business meeting.

October brings Eureka Springs, AR Corvette Weekend Oct. 1-4 and I can't wait! There are two (2) hotel rooms available for Corvette Weekend. If your interested, please contact Kevin Mansfield. The October meeting will be October 7th,

Have you picked out your Halloween costume for our annual Halloween Party? It's going to be the evening of October 24th Be looking for an email announcement for the time, location and activities or call Barb Brotton for details. This year Southwinds Corvette club will be joining our party. Also, Barb could use some help with decorations and set up. If you're interested, please give Barb a call.

As always, if you have any ideas for club events or places to go, please share them with me or an E-Board member. I hope to see everyone at the next monthly meeting at Davis Moore Chevrolet.

The Prez,
Glen Bailey
ACCC President
